Subj: Storage of Official Papers

1. It is requested that I be provided space at your center for the storage of my official naval records and files.
2. It will be my understanding that access to such papers will be restricted to the below listed individuals for a period of twenty (20) years or upon my death, whichever occurs first, at which time such papers will be handled in accordance with appropriate government regulations, and following consultations with my surviving spouse. Further, there should be no transfer of the subject papers from the Naval Historical Center without my written permission.
3. The following are granted access to these papers:

STANSFIELD TURNER
